Customer Information on the EU Deforestation Regulation (EU) 2023/1115

Dear Sir or Madam,

With the entry into force of the EU Deforestation Regulation (EU) 2023/1115 on 29 June 2023 new binding requirements for the trade with certain raw materials and products originated from them.

Through a targeted revision, a new extension until 30 December 2026 has been decided for all companies. In addition, small and micro-enterprises are granted a further transitional period until 30 June 2027.

This regulation prohibits the import and sale of products originating from areas that were deforested after 31 December 2020.

➔ The aim is to fight against global deforestation, stop biodiversity loss, and significantly reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

The regulation applies, among others, to the following raw materials and products originated from these:

- Beef
- Cocoa
- Coffee
- Palm oil
- Soya
- Wood
- Natural rubber

The information we have provided on the EU Deforestation Regulation (EU) 2023/1115 corresponds to our current state of knowledge at the time of publication.

Currently, none of our products fall within the scope of this regulation.

The letter dated 26 September 2025, in which RIEGLER declared products containing natural rubber, hereby loses its validity.
The HS codes 4009 31 00 and 4009 32 00 are currently not included in the regulation

We rely on the information provided by our supply partners and therefore exclude any liability claims.
That result from missing or incomplete information from our suppliers.

If you have any questions regarding the implementation of the regulation in our company, please feel free to contact us at:
